Hi Deborah

I hope you are well. I wonder if you can help me on this one please. This matter completed a few years ago and upon review of our file it has come to light that we did not retain a copy of the Transfer deed signed by our clients when this was sent to you prior to completion. I would therefore be really grateful if you could scan me a copy of this.

I look forward to hearing from you

Kind regards

Dear Rosie,

I have checked our file and can find no Transfer signed by your clients or any letter from you sending this to us.

E-mail and other forms of non face to face communication enable individuals to easily disguise their true identity, often for dishonest purposes. Unless you are absolutely sure of the identity of the person communicating with you – particularly where instructions or requests concerning money are made - You should independently verify it. If you receive a request purporting to come from Blake Morgan asking you to send monies to a bank account that is different from the one that we have told you of, it is unlikely to be genuine. Blake Morgan cannot be held responsible if you transfer money into an incorrect account in these circumstances.
