

Prosecutor

From: Matthew Prescott <Matthew.Prescott@communities.gsi.gov.uk>
Sent: 25 August 2017 16:31
To: prosecutor@ipfraud.info
Subject: Local validation lists

Good afternoon Andrew,

I have now had confirmation from my legal colleagues that the local validation lists are not an explicit statutory requirement, as expected. If, however, they did begin to impose information requirements, regulations made under the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (Development Management Procedure Order 2015) state that the requirements must be set out on the authority's website if they are to have a bearing on validation.

Have a good bank holiday weekend,

Matt

This email and any files transmitted with it are private and intended solely for the use of the individual or entity to which they are addressed. If you are not the intended recipient the E-mail and any files have been transmitted to you in error and any copying, distribution or other use of the information contained in them is strictly prohibited.

Nothing in this E-mail message amounts to a contractual or other legal commitment on the part of the Government unless confirmed by a communication signed on behalf of the Secretary of State.

The Department's computer systems may be monitored and communications carried on them recorded, to secure the effective operation of the system and for other lawful purposes.

Correspondents should note that all communications from Department for Communities and Local Government may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for lawful purposes.
