Dear Andrew

Re: Sense-Sonic Limited ("the Company")

I refer to our recent telephone conversation.

I note that you have asked whether the patent agents, Wilson Gunn, were ever engaged by our clients, Stephen Leonard Conn and Andrew Dick, whilst they were the administrative receivers of the above Company.

My clients have checked through their records and can find no evidence to suggest that Wilson Gunn were ever instructed to act on behalf of Sense-Sonic Limited by my clients as joint administrative receivers.

Yours sincerely

Subject: Re: GB2267412 et al - s8 & s37 Entitlement Proceedings - NLM Ltd v Conversor Products Ltd.

Dear Mr. Hall,

I refer to our telephone conversation earlier today. I explained to you that I will be attending an internal meeting on Tuesday afternoon 31 October with regard to the case management of these proceedings.

I also confirmed my question posed to David Meldrum of D. Young and Co on 19 October. I explained to you that I contacted David Meldrum on that day and explained that you, Mr Hall, on behalf of Northern Light Music Ltd had alleged that document C4 referred to in the defendant's counterstatement was not an assignment. I asked David Meldrum whether C4 is the assignment document as described in the defendant's counterstatement at paragraph 29 and if the C4 document already filed was not the assignment document that the assignment document should be filed with the office in accordance with rule 112 of the Patent Rules.

As you are aware Mr Meldrum responded as follows:

"In accordance with your request made during our telephone discussion today, I am writing to confirm that the 15 September 2003 sale and purchase agreement is the assignment of GB2267412 to Tonewear Ltd. No postal confirmation of this letter will be sent."
